1. GENESIS: Why and how it all began – and how it nearly did not!	1
2. HEALTH & SANITATION: The scepticism, the encounters, the battles, and the war with mind-sets... “This shameless Programme discusses menstruation with young girls” or “Television? Yes, and now. Toilet? No, and can wait”. Some of these are yet to be won.	12
3. MAHILA MANDALS (MMs, THE WOMEN’S GROUPS): The bedrock of the Programme, and its trials by fire!	25
4. YUVA MANDALS/YUVTI SAMOOHS (YMs/YsSs, THE YOUTH GROUPS): The youth need to be energized and mobilized, as CORD knows...	50
5. BALWADIS (PRE-SCHOOL NURSERIES)/ADULT LITERACY: Why the ‘ready-made’ Balwadi children are so much in demand from primary schools, government and private, and how these humble Balwadis came to be the poor’s play-schools.	74
6. SOCIAL JUSTICE & INFORMAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE (SJ&ILA): Women and their families overcame fatalism’s fatigue and discovered that one can grasp one’s destiny in one’s own hands. Plus, the combat against alcohol abuse, the root cause of domestic strife, with the Bal Senas (children’s armies) pitching in.	91
7. SELF HELP GROUPS/RESOURCE CENTRE (SHGs/RC): From no loans for women, to banks wooing them openly, with collaterals redefined. Out with the moneylender!	115
8. COMMUNITY BASED LIVELIHOOD (CBL): The challenges of integrating the poorest of the poor, with a variety of innovations... mothers barter a handful of vegetables for school stationery, or children work at a farm to help pay for their school fees or uniforms; or backyard dairies, phone booths, and even women ‘maning’ a wheat thresher!	130
Interviews – with Swami Tejomayananda and Dr. Kshama Metre	157
9. COMMUNITY BASED REHABILITATION (CBR): The journey of the differently-abled (DA). Those who were once perceived as liabilities are now seen as decision makers and significant contributors, including a differently-abled person who runs a model Yuva Mandal.	169
10. THE PANCHAYATI RAJ INSTITUTION (PRI): The age-old local body for self-governance, and the challenges that lie in the path of awakening this somnolent colossus!	190
11. PARTICIPATORY NATURAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT (PNRM): The planet must be saved, and it needs a million small beginnings. Oh, and what happens when water comes back into one’s life.	214
12. ‘PRINCELY MORTALS’: Profiles of deeply-caring fundraisers and donors.... including Dr. Sneha Chakraborty, who was ‘appointed’ fundraiser by Swami Chinmayananda. Plus, a Model Village – the dream of a late donor.	239
13. OFFICE & ADMINISTRATION: From a one-woman office army, to the first computer after 12 years of the Programme’s existence, to a fully wired office...	262
14. ‘ORGANIZATIONAL CLIMATE!’ The space, the climate, the air pockets, and a tsunami too!	277
15. ON BALANCE! An executive summary, a quick overview.	298
